Healthcare Provider (HP) Conducts One of 10 Standard Tests on Patient During Office Examination of Patient and Transcribes the Test Results
HP uses any available internet browsing software on any available internet-connected device to access invention website
1
HP connects with server via secure connection to invention website using password-authenticated login
2
Is patient's healthcare information already in database?
YES
NO
HP enters patient information
3
Does the patient already have a case associated with this condition?
4
YES
NO
HP enters patient's case
5
HP enters data collected during patient testing associated with this case information/condition
6
Has this test been performed previously in association with this patient's case?
7
YES
Data from previous tests is added to current data to provide progressive analysis of patient's
8
NO
Full text report with graphic analysis AND progress reporting on patient's condition
9
Full text report with graphic analysis is created
10
HP prints report and submits it to third-party payer
11
Reports are stored on server for:
- future reference
- reprinting
- progress reporting
12

Fig. 1